

Portfolio Writing Assignment #1: An Important Early Memory

Write about an autobiographical incident earlier in your life. Describe in detail and in sequence what you remember. The assignment should be three to five paragraphs in length. The last paragraph will include why this event is important to you.

Use this document to develop your outline. It will help improve structure and ensure you include elements that make the assignment more readable and engaging.

Outline

Paragraph I: Use a topic sentence and introduce the memory. Point form thoughts that will provide some context/background. Grab attention.

-
-
-

transitions?

Paragraph II to IV: Expand vividly on this memory.

People:

Events:

transitions?

Paragraph V: Conclusion - here you explain why this memory is important. Tie the recollection together.

-
-